L'Attaque

L'Attaque is a hidden-information strategy game designed by Hermance Edan, patented in France in 1908 and first sold in 1910. H.P. Gibson & Sons acquired the rights in 1925 and published the game — and a family of themed variants — in Britain. All games in this hub share the same core system: pieces with hidden ranks, higher rank defeats lower, and a unique win objective per game.
